$445.00 PP Single

Day 1

As your coach arrives in glamorous Palm Beach, Victorian Hostesses welcome you to luncheon at the Chesterfield, a 1926 boutique hotel, decorated Elegantly for the Holidays. As you dine, you'll be transported back to 1859 and learn about life in the Victorian Era ... including the languages of the fan and the parasol ... after all, women were to be seen and not heard! Enjoy a brief narrated tour of Palm Beach with our professional step-on guide en route to the Flagler Museum, "Whitehall", Henry and Lucy Flagler's palatial winter home. Visit at your leisure with headphones. Antique furnishings, magnificent Christmas trees, the Flaglers' private rail car outside, and more! Don't forget to venture upstairs to view the beautifully appointed guest bedrooms and baths!

Trip includes:

- Deluxe Motorcoach transportation
- Victorian Holiday Luncheon at the Chesterfield Hotel, Palm Beach.

Menu features:

- Appetizer Salad
- Choice of Entrée: Chicken Marsala, Grilled Salmon, Pasta Primavera.
- Dessert: Scone with Devonshire Crème and Jam.
- Iced Tea or Coffee.
- Three Costumed Hostesses to take you back to life as it was in 1859.
- Décor and a Table Favor to set the scene and take photos.
- Meal tax and gratuity.
- Brief narration by step-on guide en route to museum.

Continue to check in at the Embassy Suites in Palm Beach Gardens, just in time for Happy Hour! Relax with fellow travelers over a drink and delicious bites! If you're still hungry, feel free to stop into the hotel restaurant or take in one of the nearby local restaurants.

Day2

After hotel breakfast and check-out, your destination is Yesteryear Village in West Palm Beach, an eclectic collection of memorabilia, homes and buildings from the late 1800's to the 1940's. Browse the General Store for unique gifts. Lunch is an on-site barbecue before your coach departs for home.
